

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 10, 2007

TO: Honorable Jeff Wentworth, Chair, Senate Committee on Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1367 by Harris (Relating to the use of parenting plans and parenting coordinators in suits affecting the parent-child relationship.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend Chapter 153, Family Code, to expand the type of dispute resolution that may be used to establish a parenting plan. It would also amend several provisions relating to parenting plans and the appointment of a parenting coordinator. The Office of Court Administration indicates that none of the proposed changes should have a significant fiscal impact on the court system.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
