May 11, 2007

TO: Honorable John Whitmire, Chair, Senate Committee on Criminal Justice

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1563 by Hinojosa (Relating to procedures for certain persons charged with certain new offenses or an administrative violation of a condition of release from the Texas Department of Criminal Justice on parole or mandatory supervision. ), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code to authorize a county magistrate in which a person is held in custody for a parole violation, ineligible release, or violation of a condition of mandatory supervision, to release the person on bond pending the hearing if certain conditions are met. Included in those conditions that must be met, is a requirement that the Parole Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) includes notice on the warrant for the person's arrest that the person is eligible for release on bond.

The bill would apply only to a person charged with a violation of the person's release on parole or mandatory supervision on or after the effective date of the bill, which would be September 1, 2007.

Local Government Impact

A county could experience a savings related to county jail expenses by being able to release a person who would otherwise be required to be held until a hearing. The savings would depend on the number of persons arrested and eligible for release under the provisions of the bill.

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
