Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 80TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 7, 2007

TO: Honorable Jim Keffer, Chair, House Committee on Ways & Means

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB1886 by Williams (Relating to motor fuel taxes.), As Engrossed

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend various sections of the Tax Code, the Code of Criminal Procedure, the Transportation Code, and the Water Code to clarify administrative and technical issues relating to various taxes collected by the Comptroller.

The bill would update references to amended sections of the Tax Code and would update statutory language to conform to current practices.

The bill would repeal Sections 162.001(34) and 162.016(c) and (h) of the Tax Code, regarding documentation requirements for the importation and exportation of motor fuel.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2007.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
