(3) shall accept from a small employer, an eligible employee, or an eligible employee's dependent and, if appropriate, refer to the commissioner, a complaint described by Section 501.1605.

(b) The decision to refer a complaint to the commissioner under Subsection (a) is at the public counsel's sole discretion.

Sec. 501.153. AUTHORITY TO APPEAR, INTERVENE, OR INITIATE. The public counsel:

(1) may appear or intervene, as a party or otherwise, as a matter of right before the commissioner or department on behalf of insurance consumers, as a class, in matters involving:

(A) rates, rules, and forms affecting:

(i) property and casualty insurance;

(ii) title insurance;

(iii) credit life insurance;

(iv) credit accident and health insurance;

or

(v) any other line of insurance for which the commissioner or department promulgates, sets, adopts, or approves rates, rules, or forms;

(B) rules affecting life, health, or accident insurance; or

(C) withdrawal of approval of policy forms:

(i) in proceedings initiated by the department under Sections 1701.055 and 1701.057; or

(ii) if the public counsel presents persuasive evidence to the department that the forms do not comply with this code, a rule adopted under this code, or any other law;

(2) may initiate or intervene as a matter of right or otherwise appear in a judicial proceeding involving or arising from an action taken by an administrative agency in a proceeding in which the public counsel previously appeared under the authority granted by this chapter;

(3) may appear or intervene, as a party or otherwise, as a matter of right on behalf of insurance consumers as a class in any proceeding in which the public counsel determines that insurance consumers are in need of representation, except that the public counsel may not intervene in an enforcement or parens patriae proceeding brought by the attorney general; ~~and~~

(4) may appear or intervene before the commissioner or department as a party or otherwise on behalf of small commercial insurance consumers, as a class, in a matter involving rates, rules, or forms affecting commercial insurance consumers, as a class, in any proceeding in which the public counsel determines that small commercial consumers are in need of representation; and

(5) may appear before the commissioner on behalf of a small employer, eligible employee, or eligible employee's dependent in a complaint the office refers to the commissioner under Section 501.1605.

Sec. 501.1605. COMPLAINT RESOLUTION FOR CERTAIN PREMIUM RATE INCREASES. (a) A small employer, an eligible employee, or an eligible employee's dependent may file a complaint with the office alleging that a rate is excessive for the risks to which the rate applies, if the percentage increase in the premium rate charged to a small employer under Subchapter E, Chapter 1501, for a new rating period exceeds 20 percent.

(b) The office shall refer a complaint received under Subsection (a) to the commissioner if the office determines that the complaint substantially attests to a rate charged that is excessive for the risks to which the rate applies. A rate may not be considered excessive for the risks to which the rate applies solely because the percentage increase in the premium rate charged exceeds the percentage described by Subsection (a).

(c) With respect to a complaint filed under Subsection (a), the office may issue a subpoena applicable throughout the state that requires the production of records.

(d) On application of the office in the case of disobedience of a subpoena, a district court may issue an order requiring any individual or person, including a small employer health benefit plan issuer described by Section 1501.002, that is subpoenaed to obey the subpoena and produce records, if the individual or person has refused to do so. An application under this subsection must be made in a district court in Travis County.
