C.S.S.B. 727
By: Patrick, Dan
Criminal Justice

Committee Report (Substituted)

AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Texas needs to have a more reliable and complete resource to help law enforcement solve crimes and apprehend suspects.

Under current law, those sentenced to the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) or the Texas Youth Commission (TYC) are mandated to provide a DNA sample. In addition, those convicted of sex crimes must provide a DNA sample. However, individuals currently not required to provide a DNA sample are those sentenced to probation and those on deferred adjudication.

C.S.S.B. 727 requires certain persons to pay costs related to DNA testing and certain convicted felons, including juveniles on probation, to provide a DNA sample.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
