AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

The Business Organizations Code, adopted in 2003 by the 78th Texas Legislature, was a joint project of the Business Law Section of the State Bar of Texas and the Office of the Texas Secretary of State, with assistance in editing and drafting coming from the Texas Legislative Council. The 79th and 80th Texas Legislatures passed several amendments to the Business Organizations Code.

The Business Organizations Code codified the provisions of prior law found in the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas Nonprofit Corporation Act, the Texas Miscellaneous Corporation Laws Act, the Texas Limited Liability Company Act, the Texas Revised Limited Partnership Act, the Texas Real Estate Investment Trust Act, the Texas Uniform Unincorporated Nonprofit Associations Act, the Texas Professional Corporation Act, the Texas Professional Associations Act, the Texas Revised Partnership Act, the Cooperative Associations Act, and other existing provisions of Texas statutes governing domestic entities.

S.B. 1442 amends current law relating to business entities and associations.

SECTION 7. Amends Section 6.052, Business Organizations Code, by adding Subsection (d), to provide that the participation or attendance at a meeting of a person entitled to notice of the meeting constitutes a waiver by the person of notice of a particular matter at the meeting that is not included in the purposes or business of the meeting described in the notice unless the person objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

Amends Section 9.104(d), Business Organizations Code, to require that a tax clearance letter, rather than a letter of eligibility, from the comptroller stating that certain information be filed with the certificate of reinstatement if the foreign filing entity is a taxable entity under Chapter 171, Tax Code, other than a foreign nonprofit corporation, rather than a professional corporation, for-profit corporation, or limited liability company.

SECTION 14. Amends Section 9.251, Business Organizations Code, as follows:

(b) Requires that the election permitted by Subsection (a) for the converting entity to continue its existence in its current organizational form and jurisdiction of formation be adopted and approved as part of the plan of conversion for the converting entity as required by Section 10.101(b) (relating to requiring certain entities to approve a plan of conversion in the manner prescribed by the Texas Business Organizations Code for the approval of conversions by the domestic entity) or 10.102(b), as applicable and permitted by, or not prohibited by and inconsistent with, the laws of the applicable non-United States jurisdiction.

(2) the converting entity and the converted entity, for purposes of the laws of this state, constitute a single entity formed, incorporated, created, or otherwise having come into being, as applicable, and existing under laws of this state and the laws of the applicable non-United States jurisdiction, so long as the entity continues to exist as a domestic entity under the laws of this state following the conversion;

(3) if the converting entity is a domestic entity, this code and the other laws of this state apply to the converted entity to the same extent as the laws applied to the entity before the conversion;

(4) if the converting entity is a non-United States entity, the laws of the applicable non-United States jurisdiction apply to the converted entity to the same extent as the laws applied to the entity before the conversion;

(5) notwithstanding Section 10.106(2) (relating to all rights, title, and interests continuing to be owned), all rights, title, and interests in all property owned by the converting entity continue to be owned by the converted entity, subject to any existing liens or other encumbrances on the property, in both the organizational form of the converting entity and the organizational form of the converted entity without reversion or impairment, further act or deed, or the occurrence of a transfer or assignment; and

(6) notwithstanding Section 10.106(3) (relating to all liabilities and obligations continuing to be the same of the converted entity), all liabilities and obligations of the converting entity remain the liabilities and obligations of the converted entity in both the organizational form of the converting entity and the organizational form of the converted entity without impairment or diminution because of the conversion.

SECTION 18. Amends Section 10.154, Business Organizations Code, by adding Subsection (c), to require that the certificate of conversion required by this section, in addition to complying with the requirements of Subsections (a) (relating to the requirement that a certificate of conversion be filed) and (b) (relating to the requirement that a certificate of conversion be signed), if Sections 10.1025 and 10.109 apply to the conversion, be titled "Certificate of Conversion and Continuance," and include a statement certifying that the converting entity is electing to continue its existence in its current organizational form and jurisdiction of formation.

(4) the dissenting owner is entitled to receive the same cash, property, rights, and other consideration received by owners of the same class and series of ownership interests held by the owner, as if the owner's demand for payment of the fair value of the ownership interests had not been made under Section 10.356, if the owner's ownership interests were canceled, converted, or exchanged as a result of the action or a subsequent action, rather than a subsequent fundamental business transaction;

(5) any action of the domestic entity taken after the date of the demand for payment by the owner under Section 10.356 will not be considered ineffective or invalid because of the restoration of the owner's ownership interests or the other rights or entitlements of the owner under this subsection; and

(6) the dissenting owner is entitled to receive dividends or other distributions made after the date of the owner's payment demand under Section 10.356 to owners of the same class and series of ownership interests held by the owner as if the demand had not been made, subject to any change in or adjustment to the ownership interests because of an action taken by the domestic entity after the date of the demand. Deletes existing text providing that on termination of the right of dissent under this section the dissenting owner is entitled to receive dividends or other distributions made in the interim to owners of the same class and series of ownership interests held by the owner as if the demand for the payment of the ownership interests had not been made under Section 10.356, the cancellation or exchange of the ownership interests, after the date of the demand, rather than a demand under Section 10.356 subject to any change in or adjustment to ownership interests because of the cancellation or exchange of the ownership interests after the date a demand under Section 10.356 was made pursuant to a fundamental business transaction. Authorizes a corporation to place the shares, although fully paid and nonassessable, in escrow, or make other arrangements to restrict the transfer of the shares, and to credit distributions made with respect to the shares against their purchase price, until the services are performed, the note is paid, or the benefits are received.
