22 issuer, including a subsidiary or an affiliate of the health
23 benefit plan issuer, may not, in any manner, disseminate
24 information to the public that compares, rates, tiers, classifies, 25 measures, or ranks a physician's performance, efficiency, or 26 quality of practice against objective standards or the practice of 27 other physicians unless:

1 (1) the objective standards or comparison criteria
2 used by the health benefit plan issuer are disclosed to the 3 physician prior to the evaluation period;

4 (2) the data used to establish satisfaction of the 5 objective criteria or to make the comparison are available to the 6 physician for verification before any dissemination of information
7 to the public; and

8 (3) the health benefit plan issuer provides due
9 process to the physician as provided by this chapter.

10 Sec. 1460.052. INJUNCTIVE RELIEF. (a) A writ of injunction
11 may be granted by any district court if a health benefit plan issuer
12 disseminates, or intends to disseminate, information that

23 otherwise differentiates a physician from the physician's peers
24 based on performance, efficiency, or quality, the issuer must 25 notify the affected physician of its intent in a written notice
26 that meets the requirements of this section.

27 (b) A notice of intent issued under Subsection (a) must

1 include:

2 (1) a statement describing the proposed action of the 3 health benefit plan issuer and the reasons for that proposed 4 action;

5 (2) a statement that the affected physician has the 6 right to request a hearing on the proposed action as provided by 7 this chapter;

5 (3) the right to call, examine, and cross-examine 6 witnesses;

7 (4) the right to present evidence;

8 (5) the right to submit a written statement to the

22 plan issuer followed by presentation of the case by the physician or 23 the physician's counsel;

24 (3) rebuttal by the health benefit plan issuer
25 followed by the physician or the physician's counsel; and

26 (4) closing statements by the health benefit plan
27 issuer followed by the physician or the physician's counsel.

1 Sec. 1460.057. EFFECT OF NONAPPEARANCE; WAIVER. (a) The 2 hearing panel is not precluded from proceeding with a hearing 3 conducted under this chapter by the failure to appear at all or any 4 part of the hearing of:

5 (1) the affected physician or the physician's legal 6 counsel, if any; or

7 (2) any witness.

8 (b) Failure of a physician not represented by counsel or 9 failure of both a physician and the physician's counsel to appear 10 at the hearing is deemed a waiver of all procedural rights under 11 this chapter that could have been exercised by, or on behalf of, the 12 affected physician at the hearing.

13 Sec. 1460.058. EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES. Each of the 14 following persons present at a hearing conducted under this chapter
15 may examine or cross-examine any witness testifying at the hearing
16 in person, telephonically, or electronically through the Internet
17 or otherwise:

18 (1) the physician or, at the physician's option, the 19 physician's counsel, but not both;

20 (2) the representative of the health benefit plan
21 issuer, as designated by the issuer; and

22 (3) the members of the hearing panel.

23 Sec. 1460.059. BURDEN OF PROOF; DECISION. (a) The health
24 benefit plan issuer must prove, by a preponderance of evidence,
25 that:

26 (1) in the case of a methodology using objective
27 standards, the affected physician's performance, efficiency, or

1 quality and the effectiveness of the medical care delivered by the 2 physician has not met the standards disclosed under Section 3 1460.051; or

4 (2) in the case of a methodology using relative
5 comparison criteria, the data is accurate and correctly portrays
6 the affected physician's performance, efficiency, or quality
7 relative to other physicians in the same or similar medical 8 specialty with comparable patient populations.

9 (b) The decision of the hearing panel is binding.

10 (c) If the hearing panel's decision is that the health
11 benefit plan issuer has met its burden of proof, the health benefit
12 plan issuer may publish the comparison, rating, tier,
13 classification, measurement, or ranking.

14 (d) If the hearing panel's decision is that the health 15 benefit plan issuer has not met its burden of proof, the panel shall 16 instruct the health benefit plan issuer to appropriately modify the 17 comparison, rating, tier, classification, measurement, or ranking
18 before publication.

19 Sec. 1460.060. EFFECT OF CONTINUED DISAGREEMENT. (a) On 20 written notice that the affected physician disagrees with the 21 health benefit plan issuer's comparison, rating, tier,
22 classification, measurement, or ranking or the decision of the 23 hearing panel, the health benefit plan issuer shall prominently
24 display a symbol indicating the physician disputes the comparison, 25 rating, tier, classification, measurement, or ranking next to any 26 comparison, rating, tier, classification, measurement, or ranking
27 information for that physician.

1 (b) Each Internet web page displaying comparison, rating,
2 tier, classification, measurement, or ranking information must 3 contain a key explaining the meaning of the symbol required by 4 Subsection (a).

6 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 7 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 8 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 9 Act takes effect September 1, 2009.
