2 SECTION 2. Article 39.14(a), Code of Criminal Procedure, is
3 amended to read as follows:

4 Upon motion of the defendant showing good cause therefor (a) 5 and upon notice to the other parties, except as provided by Article 39.15, the court in which an action is pending shall order the State 6 before or during trial of a criminal action therein pending or on 7 8 trial to produce and permit the inspection and copying or photographing by or on behalf of the defendant of any designated 9 documents, papers, written statement of the defendant, (except 10 written statements of witnesses and except the work product of 11 counsel in the case and their investigators and their notes or 12 report), books, accounts, letters, photographs, objects 13 or 14 tangible things not privileged, which constitute or contain 15 evidence material to any matter involved in the action and which are in the possession, custody or control of the State or any of its 16 17 agencies. The order shall specify the time, place and manner of making the inspection and taking the copies and photographs of any 18 19 of the aforementioned documents or tangible evidence; provided, however, that the rights herein granted shall not extend to written 20 21 communications between the State or any of its agents or representatives or employees. Nothing in this Act shall authorize 22 23 the removal of such evidence from the possession of the State, and 24 any inspection shall be in the presence of a representative of the 25 State.

26 SECTION 3. Chapter 39, Code of Criminal Procedure, is 27 amended by adding Article 39.15 to read as follows:

2

Art. 39.15. DISCOVERY OF EVIDENCE THAT CONSTITUTES CHILD 1 PORNOGRAPHY. (a) In the manner provided by this article, a court 2 shall allow discovery under Article 39.14 of property or material 3 that constitutes child pornography, as described by Section 4 5 43.26(a)(1), Penal Code. 6 (b) Property or material described by Subsection (a) must 7 remain in the care, custody, or control of the court or the state as 8 provided by Article 38.45. (c) A court shall deny any request by a defendant to copy, 9 photograph, duplicate, or otherwise reproduce any property or 10 material described by Subsection (a), provided that the state makes 11 12 the property or material reasonably available to the defendant. (d) For purposes of Subsection (c), property or material is 13 14 considered to be reasonably available to the defendant if, at a 15 facility under the control of the state, the state provides ample opportunity for the inspection, viewing, and examination of the 16 17 property or material by the defendant, the defendant's attorney, and any individual the defendant seeks to qualify to provide expert 18 19 testimony at trial. SECTION 4. This Act takes effect September 1, 2009. 20
