10 trade group, reports that Texas ranks second in the country in 11 high-tech employment, with approximately 459,000 jobs; moreover,
12 56 out of every 1,000 private sector workers in Texas are employed
13 by high-tech firms; the state ranks ninth among all states in terms
14 of high-tech average wage, and the industry provides an aggregate
15 high-tech payroll of $37.5 billion; the importance of this industry
16 to Texans is further underscored by the fact that high-tech product 17 exports exceed $35.9 billion and account for 21 percent of the 18 state's international exports; and

19 WHEREAS, All sectors of the high-technology and life sciences
20 community are joining together this week to discuss the major
21 issues facing their industries and to affirm their support for a 22 strong system of public and higher education, a critical factor in 23 providing the highly skilled workforce on which these industries 24 depend; and

25 WHEREAS, The technology and life sciences industries have 26 become a tremendous engine of economic growth in the State of Texas, 27 and the benefits of their research and production enhance the lives

H.R. No. 463
