

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The people of San Antonio lost a dedicated champion
2 of civil rights and an inspiring religious and community leader
3 with the death of the Reverend Claude William Black, Jr., on March 4 13, 2009, at the age of 92; and

5 WHEREAS, Born in San Antonio on November 28, 1916, Claude
6 Black, Jr., was the oldest child of Cora and Claude Black, Sr.; he 7 graduated from Morehouse College and subsequently earned a master
8 of divinity degree from Andover Newton Theological School; exposed 9 to political organizing through his father, who served as vice 10 president of the local Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, he 11 became active in the community in the early 1940s; he founded the 12 San Antonio Mother's Service Organization to encourage positive
13 youth development, and it became the first African American group 14 of Christian women to get a state charter for a local club; and

15 WHEREAS, Reverend Black continued his activism as the civil 16 rights movement got under way, leading and organizing marches 17 around the state; in March 1960, he urged city officials to 18 integrate local lunch counters, and San Antonio became the first 19 major city in the South to break this barrier without 20 demonstrations; he was an associate of Martin Luther King, Jr., 21 Thurgood Marshall, A. Philip Randolph, and Adam Clayton Powell, 22 Jr., and he was invited by President Lyndon B. Johnson to attend the 23 White House Conference on Civil Rights in 1966; and

24 WHEREAS, Even as many of the movement's goals were realized,

1 this esteemed Texan remained a vital advocate for San Antonio's
2 African American population; he was elected to the city council in 3 the early 1970s and went on to become the city's first African 4 American mayor pro tem; a decade later, he founded a corporation to 5 help east side residents obtain suitable housing, and in 1995, he 6 was appointed a delegate to the White House Council on Aging by 7 President Bill Clinton; and

8 WHEREAS, Reverend Black further distinguished himself as the 9 pastor of San Antonio's historic Mount Zion First Baptist Church
10 and, under his guidance, the church became known for its numerous 11 public outreach efforts; his legacy includes the development of two 12 neighborhood day-care centers, an apartment complex for seniors, 13 and the city's only financial institution owned by an African 14 American church; moreover, when the Mount Zion sanctuary was 15 destroyed by arson in 1974, Reverend Black led members through the 16 rebuilding process, and a new sanctuary was completed the next 17 year; by the time of his retirement in 1998, he had served the 18 church for nearly half a century; and

19 WHEREAS, In all of his endeavors, Reverend Black enjoyed the 20 love and support of his beloved wife, ZerNona, with whom he shared 21 59 years before her death in 2005; the couple raised two children,
22 Stewart and Joyce, and welcomed six grandchildren and four 23 great-grandchildren into their family; and

24 WHEREAS, Reverend Black was recognized for his commitment to 25 civil rights with the 1991 MLK Distinguished Achievement Award from 26 the City of San Antonio, and the city also named an east side 27 community center in his honor; before his death, he was notified of

1 his selection for the prestigious Testament of Hope Award, given in 2 tribute to an outstanding community leader; his grandson, Taj
3 Matthews, and other family members, accepted the award on his 4 behalf at the second annual Realizing the Dream Award Celebration, 5 hosted by Martin Luther King III; and

6 WHEREAS, With his lifelong devotion to justice and equality,
7 Claude Black made a profound difference in the city of San Antonio 8 and beyond, and he leaves behind a record of achievement that will 9 continue to resonate for many years to come; now, therefore, be it

10 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 81st Texas
11 Legislature hereby honor the memory of the Reverend Claude William 12 Black, Jr., and extend sincere sympathy to his family: to his 13 grandchildren, Taj Matthews, Chantey Matthews, and Claude
14 Williams, and their families; to his sister, Mary Etta Black Deas;
15 and to his many admirers across the Lone Star State; and, be it
16 further

17 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 18 prepared for his family and that when the Texas House of 19 Representatives adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Reverend 20 Black.
