

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, The citizens of Irving lost an admired civic leader
2 with the death of former mayor Morris Holland Parrish on April 30, 3 2009, at the age of 82; and

4           WHEREAS, Born a twin on January 28, 1927, near Tenaha, Morris 5 Parrish was the son of Fred and Lena Parrish; he graduated from 6 Tenaha High School in 1943 and went on to serve his country during 7 World War II and the Korean War as a hospital corpsman in the U.S.
8 Navy; he subsequently earned a bachelor's degree from Stephen F.
9 Austin State University and a master's degree in hospital
10 administration from Northwestern University; and

11           WHEREAS, Mr. Parrish enjoyed a long career as a hospital
12 administrator, serving at Memorial Hospital in Houston, Memorial
13 Hospital in Nacogdoches, and Irving Community Hospital before 14 retiring in 1987; along the way, he was appointed as a member of the 15 Board of Nurse Examiners by Governor William Clements; and

16           WHEREAS, Later selected as executive director of the Irving 17 Arts Center by the Irving City Council, Mr. Parrish developed an 18 enthusiasm for public art, which became a defining characteristic 19 of his service as a council member and as mayor for four years; a 20 strong advocate for mass transit, as well, he worked for the 21 expansion of the Dallas Area Rapid Transit service and fought for 22 Irving's continued inclusion in DART's territory; and

23           WHEREAS, Mr. Parrish further distinguished himself as a 24 member of the Dallas Mobility Coalition, the Tollway Committee for

1 the Dallas Region, the DART Arts Committee, the executive committee
2 of the North Texas Council of Governments, the executive committee
3 of the North Texas Commission, and the Metroplex Mayors 4 Association, which he chaired; in addition, he was a deacon at 5 Plymouth Park Baptist Church, and he was particularly proud of the 6 role he played in establishing the Irving Healthcare Foundation, an 7 organization that raises funds for nonprofit health care; and

8 WHEREAS, Dedicated to improving the world around him, Morris 9 Parrish inspired others with his energy and generosity, and he will 10 long be remembered by all who were privileged to share in the 11 richness of his life; now, therefore, be it

12 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 81st Texas
13 Legislature hereby pay tribute to the life of Morris Holland
14 Parrish and extend sincere sympathy to the members of his family: to 15 his wife, Marjorie Parrish; to his children, Richard Parrish and 16 Judith Bolch; to his grandchildren, Sam, Danny, and Alex Parrish
17 and Beau and Ali Bolch; to his twin brother, Mitchell Parrish, and 18 his wife, LeFern; to his sister-in-law, Jean Parrish; and to his 19 other relatives and friends; and, be it further

20 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 21 prepared for his family and that when the Texas House of 22 Representatives adjourns this day, it do so in memory of Morris 23 Parrish.
