H.R. No. 2697

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The year 2009 marks the 100th anniversary of Texas
2 PTA, and this momentous occasion provides a welcome opportunity to 3 honor the organization for its myriad efforts in behalf of 4 children, families, and schools; and

5 WHEREAS, Texas PTA has served Texas parents, students, school
6 administrators, and teachers since its inception on October 19, 7 1909; today, more than 600,000 members are involved in the 8 organization, which includes nearly 3,000 local PTAs across the 9 state; and

10 WHEREAS, Ella Caruthers Porter formed the first mother's club
11 in 1896 in Hillsboro and went on to establish a Texas branch of the 12 National Congress of Mothers in 1909 at the State Fair of Texas in 13 Dallas; early on, members of Texas PTA worked to raise awareness 14 about the conditions affecting children's lives through a variety 15 of educational campaigns; in addition, they advocated for the 16 establishment of kindergartens and the creation of a child welfare
17 commission, and they urged laws promoting the health of public 18 school students; and

19 WHEREAS, From its humble beginnings a century ago, Texas PTA
20 has become a champion for the education and well-being of every 21 child and a vital resource for families and communities, and the 22 state is indeed a better place for the tireless contributions of its 23 many members; now, therefore, be it
