

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 66

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to designate January 28, 2009, as Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants Day at the Capitol and to recognize the certified public accountants who are visiting the Capitol today; and

WHEREAS, The Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants is a nonprofit, voluntary professional organization representing 28,000 members in 20 local chapters situated across the state; and

WHEREAS, This outstanding organization offers numerous services and programs to its members and to those seeking to enter the field of accountancy; the Accounting Education Foundation provides financial assistance to students, and the Peer Review Program and hundreds of continuing education programs keep members up to date on the latest accounting practices and ethics requirements; and

WHEREAS, The society has created a nonpartisan political action committee to work with the members of the Texas Legislature; it meets regularly with the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts and stays informed of proposed tax legislation to better understand the impact on the Texas economy; and

WHEREAS, The Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants contributes greatly to the economic vitality of our state, and it is justly deserving of recognition for its many accomplishments; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 81st Legislature, hereby commend the members of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants for their dedication to serving the public interest and extend best wishes for a productive day at the Capitol; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for this exemplary organization as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.
