

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 23, 2009

TO: Honorable Todd Hunter, Chair, House Committee on Judiciary & Civil Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB313 by Raymond (Relating to access to certain information contained in a decree of dissolution of a marriage or in an order in a suit affecting the parent-child relationship.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Family Code relating to access to certain information contained in a decree of dissolution of a marriage or in an order in a suit affecting the parent-child relationship. The bill would require the Supreme Court to adopt rules restricting access to personal information in suits affecting parent-child relationships and divorce decrees. To the extent the bill would require a modification in judicial proceedings, the fiscal implication to the State is not anticipated to be significant. The bill would take effect September 1, 2009.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
