

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 15, 2009

TO: Honorable Yvonne Gonzalez Toureilles, Chair, House Committee on Agriculture & Livestock

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB328 by Heflin (Relating to abolishing the office of inspector of hides and animals.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would abolish the office of inspector of hides and animals and transfer any records of that office to the county clerk of the county previously served by the inspector.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Source Agencies:

LBB Staff: JOB, WK, DB