

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION
Revision 1

April 23, 2009

TO: Honorable Rob Eissler, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB626 by Allen (relating to educational involvement agreements setting forth the respective responsibilities of students, parents, teachers, and principals in public schools.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

It is assumed that districts that choose to distribute the forms would do so with other information that requires a parent's acknowledgement and signature at the beginning of the school year in order to minimize cost.

Source Agencies: 701 Central Education Agency

LBB Staff: JOB, JSp, SD, JGM, WG