

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 15, 2009

TO: Honorable John Whitmire, Chair, Senate Committee on Criminal Justice

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1472 by Jones (Relating to the offense of cruelty to nonlivestock animals.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Penal Code by expanding the definition of cruelty to nonlivestock animals to include harass. Under the provision of the bill harass would be defined as disturb, worry, molest, harry, torment, or chase. Under current statute, the punishment for cruelty to nonlivestock animals ranges from a Class A misdemeanor to third degree felony. The bill would take effect September 1, 2009 and apply only to an offense committed on or after the effective date of the Act. It is assumed that the bill would not result in a significant impact on the programs and workload of state corrections agencies or on the demand for resources and services of those agencies.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
