

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 27, 2009

TO: Honorable Rob Eissler, Chair, House Committee on Public Education

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1567 by Villarreal (Relating to abstinence education in public schools.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Costs for school districts could vary widely in implementing the bill's requirement to alter the health curriculum standards.

Source Agencies: 701 Central Education Agency

LBB Staff: JOB, JSp, JGM, AW