

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 20, 2009

TO: Honorable Pete Gallego, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1681 by Gallego (Relating to the authority of general-law municipalities to restrict sex offenders from child safety zones in the municipality.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would authorize the governing body of a general-law municipality, by ordinance, to restrict a person required to register as a sex offender from going in, on, or within a specified distance of a child safety zone in the municipality.

Local Government Impact

Any administrative costs associated with enacting an ordinance and any enforcement costs could be absorbed within existing resources. No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
