Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 21, 2009

TO: Honorable Patrick M. Rose, Chair, House Committee on Human Services

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1905 by Guillen (Relating to studying the costs and benefits of a pilot program for services for adults with autism.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would require the Department of Aging and Disability Services to conduct a study to determine the costs and benefits to the state of initiating a pilot program to provide services to adults with autism. A report would be required to be submitted no later than September 1, 2011.

The agency indicates any cost to implement provisions of the bill would be minimal and can be absorbed within available resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
