Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 13, 2009

TO: Honorable Pete Gallego, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2385 by Castro (Relating to the punishment for the offense of prohibited sexual conduct.),
As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Penal Code making prohibited sexual conduct in which the victim and offender were related as defined by Section 25.02 (a) (1), currently punishable as a third degree felony, punishable as a second degree felony. Under the provisions of the bill, prohibited sexual conduct in which the victim and offender were related as defined by Section 25.02 (a) (6), currently punishable as a second degree felony, would be punishable as a third degree felony.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2009 and apply only to an offense committed on or after the effective date of the Act.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
