

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD

Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 13, 2009

TO: Honorable Todd Hunter, Chair, House Committee on Judiciary & Civil Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2517 by Turner, Sylvester (Relating to the dedication of certain civil penalties for violations of the Business & Commerce Code to provide civil legal services to the indigent.),
As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code and provides that any funds recovered by the Attorney General's Office as civil penalties pursuant to an action under the Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act are to be credited to the judicial fund for certain approved programs providing civil legal services to the indigent. It is assumed that any costs associated with implementation of the bill would not be significant.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
