

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 27, 2009

TO: Honorable Vicki Truitt, Chair, House Committee on Pensions, Investments & Financial Services

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB2779 by Truitt (relating to the regulation of certain mortgage banker employees who are residential mortgage loan originators; providing penalties.), Committee Report 1st House, Substituted

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill amends the Finance Code to provide licensing and regulation of mortgage banker employees who are residential mortgage originators.

Based on the analysis of the Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner, the Department of Banking, and the Department of Savings and Mortgage Lending, it is assumed that duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing agency resources.

The bill takes effect on April 1, 2010, only if House Bill 10 or another similar bill of the Regular Session of the 81st Legislature relating to the licensing of residential mortgage loan originators is enacted.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
