Fiscal Analysis

The bill would amend the Occupations Code relating to continuing professional education requirements for land surveyors. The bill amends the Professional Land Surveying Practices Act by stating the board's rules must provide that the continuing professional education requirement may be met by completing annually not more than 16 hours of professional development courses or programs.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2009.

Methodology

According to information provided by the Board of Professional Land Surveying, the agency's computer program would have to be programmed to track the increased number of hours. The agency estimates programming costs to be $4,000 in FY 2010. In addition, the agency estimates that one part-time employee would be needed to assist with data entry and filing. The agency estimates the total cost for implementation of the bill would be $24,786 in 2010 and $19,286 in 2011-14.

Based on the analysis of the agency, it is assumed that the Board would adjust license fees to cover any additional costs associated with the implementation of this bill.

Technology

The agency estimates a one-time programming cost of $4,000 for changes to the agency's computer system and $1,500 for a personal computer for the part-time employee.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
