

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 17, 2009

TO: Honorable Rene Oliveira, Chair, House Committee on Ways & Means

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3498 by Swinford (Relating to the appeal of an appraisal review board order to district court.), As Introduced

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would change certain judicial procedures involving law suits in district courts to protest orders of appraisal review boards concerning values for ad valorem taxation. Changes to current law would be made in the areas of amending petitions for subsequent year's protests and deadlines for discovery and trial. The bill would also extend the preference granted for setting hearings and trials of appeals from orders of appraisal review boards to include all counties.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
