

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 13, 2009

TO: Honorable Mark Homer, Chair, House Committee on Culture, Recreation & Tourism

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3799 by Geren (Relating to the preservation and maintenance of the governor's mansion.),
As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would provide for the State Preservation Board to be solely responsible for the preservation and maintenance of the Governor's Mansion.

The bill would allow the State Preservation Board to accept gifts, grants, and donations on behalf of the Governor's Mansion.

The bill would repeal statute providing for the Historical Commission to be solely responsible for the preservation and maintenance of the Governor's Mansion.

The bill would take effect immediately if it receives a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, otherwise, the bill would take effect September 1, 2009.

It is assumed that any additional duties and responsibilities required by the bill could be absorbed within existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
