

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 2, 2009

TO: Honorable Pete Gallego, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB371 by Carona (Relating to certain civil consequences of engaging in organized crime.),
As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure by adding items used or intended to be used in the commission of organized crime offenses to the definition of what constitutes "contraband" and could therefore be subject to forfeiture.

Any possible revenue gain resulting from the forfeiture of contraband forfeited from the commission of an organized crime offense would depend on what was confiscated and its value. While the gain is indeterminate, it is not anticipated to have significant fiscal implications.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
