

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

April 25, 2009

TO: Honorable Pete Gallego, Chair, House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB595 by Hegar (Relating to the sealing of and discovery procedures relating to evidence that constitutes child pornography in a criminal hearing or proceeding.), As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to the sealing of and discovery procedures for evidence that constitutes child pornography in a criminal hearing or proceeding. The bill would prohibit the copying or distribution of evidence that constitutes child pornography to the public, provided the evidence is made reasonably available to the defendant as described. The bill would direct a court to place the evidence under seal at the conclusion of a criminal hearing or proceeding, with provisions that the seal may be lifted if doing so is in the best interest of the public. To the extent the bill would amend court procedures in criminal hearings or proceedings, no significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated. The bill would take effect September 1, 2009.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
