The bill would amend various sections of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code.

Under the provisions of the bill an in-home service company shall obtain from the Department of Public Safety, or a private vendor, criminal history record information relating to officers, employees, or prospective employees before the company (associates with or hires) an officer, employee, or perspective employee. If the company chooses they may instead ascertain that the person holds in good standing an occupational license issued by a licensing authority in this state that has before issuing or renewing the license, performed a criminal history background check.

The bill would take effect September 1, 2009.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
