

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 16, 2009

TO: Honorable Robert Duncan, Chair, Senate Committee on State Affairs

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: SB927 by Huffman (Relating to tampering with a direct recording electronic voting machine.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Penal Code and provide the Attorney General, with the consent of the local prosecutor, concurrent criminal jurisdiction to investigate and prosecute the crime of tampering with a direct recording electronic voting machine. It is assumed that any additional costs associated with implementation of the bill could be absorbed within existing state resources.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
