The Comptroller of Public Accounts indicates that the bill would reduce the use of tobacco products by 18 year-old Texans by 20 percent, and as a result, the estimates for the cigarette tax and cigar and tobacco products tax by $5,819,000 in fiscal year 2010 and by $6,720,000 in fiscal year 2011 in the Property Tax Relief Fund No. 0304. Similar reductions would occur for the remaining fiscal years.
