24 (37) railroad peace officers appointed by the public
25 safety director of the Department of Public Safety under Article
26 2.121, subject to the limitations imposed by that article.

27 SECTION 2. Article 2.121, Code of Criminal Procedure, is

1 amended to read as follows:

2 Art. 2.121. RAILROAD PEACE OFFICERS. (a) The public safety
3 director of the Department of Public Safety may appoint [~~up to 250~~]
4 railroad peace officers who are employed by a railroad company to
5 aid law enforcement agencies in the protection of railroad property
6 and the protection of the persons and property of railroad
7 passengers and employees. Each appointed officer has all the 8 powers, privileges, and immunities of a peace officer while 9 carrying out duties as a railroad peace officer within the 10 boundaries of this state.

11 (b) [~~Except as provided by Subsection (c) of this article, a~~
12 ~~railroad peace officer may make arrests and exercise all authority~~
13 ~~given peace officers under this code when necessary to prevent or~~
14 ~~abate the commission of an offense involving injury to passengers~~
15 ~~and employees of the railroad or damage to railroad property or to~~ 16 ~~protect railroad property or property in the custody or control of~~ 17 ~~the railroad.~~

18 [~~(c) A railroad peace officer may not issue a traffic~~
19 ~~citation for a violation of Chapter 521, Transportation Code, or~~
20 ~~Subtitle C, Title 7, Transportation Code.~~

21 [~~(d)~~] A railroad peace officer is not entitled to state
22 benefits normally provided by the state to a peace officer.

23 (c) [~~(e)~~] A person may not serve as a railroad peace officer
24 for a railroad company unless:

25 (1) the Texas Railroad Association submits the
26 person's application for appointment and certification as a
27 railroad peace officer to the public safety director of the

1 Department of Public Safety and to the executive director of the
2 Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education;

3 (2) the public safety director of the department
4 issues the person a certificate of authority to act as a railroad
5 peace officer; and

6 (3) the executive director of the commission
7 determines that the person meets minimum standards required of
8 peace officers by the commission relating to competence,
9 reliability, education, training, morality, and physical and
10 mental health and issues the person a license as a railroad peace
11 officer; and

12 (4) the person has met all standards for certification
13 as a peace officer by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer
14 Standards and Education.

15 (d) [~~f~~] For good cause, the public safety director of the 16 department may revoke a certificate of authority issued under this
17 article and the executive director of the commission may revoke a
18 license issued under this article. Termination of employment with 19 a railroad company, or the revocation of a railroad peace officer
20 license, constitutes [~~shall constitute~~] an automatic revocation of 21 a certificate of authority to act as a railroad peace officer.

22 (e) [~~g~~] A railroad company is liable for any act or 23 omission by a person serving as a railroad peace officer for the 24 company that is within the person's scope of employment. Neither 25 the state nor any political subdivision or agency of the state is 26 [~~shall be~~] liable for any act or omission by a person appointed as a
27 railroad peace officer. The employing railroad company shall pay

1 all [~~All~~] expenses incurred by the granting or revocation of a
2 certificate of authority to act as a railroad peace officer [~~shall~~
3 ~~be paid by the employing railroad company~~].

4 (f) [~~(h)~~] A railroad peace officer who is a member of a
5 railroad craft may not perform the duties of a member of any other
6 railroad craft during a strike or labor dispute.

7 (g) [~~(i)~~] The public safety director of the department and
8 the executive director of the commission may adopt [~~shall have the~~
9 ~~authority to promulgate~~] rules necessary for the effective
10 administration and performance of the duties and responsibilities
11 delegated to the directors [~~them~~] by this article.

12 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives
13 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 14 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 15 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 16 Act takes effect September 1, 2009.

Secretary of the Senate

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD

Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 81ST LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 28, 2009

TO: Honorable Joe Straus, Speaker of the House, House of Representatives

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3201 by King, Phil (Relating to the designation of certain fire marshals and related officers, inspectors, and investigators and certain railroad peace officers as peace officers.),
As Passed 2nd House

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 2.12 to designate certain fire marshals and related officers, inspectors, and investigators as peace officers. The bill would take effect immediately if it receives a two-thirds vote of all the members in each house, otherwise it would take effect on September 1, 2009. The Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education and the Texas Commission on Fire Protection anticipate no significant fiscal impact to their agencies.

Local Government Impact

The bill would include fire marshals, and related officers, inspectors, or investigators commissioned by a county as defined by Chapter 352 of the Local Government Code, to be designated as a peace officer. The fiscal impact to local entities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill is not anticipated to be significant.

TO: Honorable John Whitmire, Chair, Senate Committee on Criminal Justice

FROM: John S. O'Brien, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB3201 by King, Phil (Relating to the designation of certain fire marshals and related officers, inspectors, and investigators and certain railroad peace officers as peace officers.),
As Engrossed

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 2.12 to designate certain fire marshals and related officers, inspectors, and investigators as peace officers. The bill would also amend the Code of Criminal Procedure by stating that railroad peace officers appointed by the Director of the Department of Public Safety (DPS) are subject to the limitations imposed by that particular article. The bill deletes the text that limits the number of appointed railroad peace officers to 250. The bill states that each appointed rail road peace officer has all of the powers, privileges, and immunities of a peace officer. The bill would take effect immediately if it receives a two-thirds vote of all the members in each house, otherwise it would take effect on September 1, 2009. The Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education and the Texas Commission on Fire Protection anticipate no significant fiscal impact to their agencies.
