SECTION 8. Subchapter J, Chapter 521, Transportation Code, is amended by adding Section 521.206 to read as follows:

Same as House version.

Sec. 521.206. COLLISION RATE STATISTICS PUBLICATION. (a) The department shall collect data regarding collisions of students taught by public schools, driver education schools licensed under Chapter 1001, Education Code, and other entities that offer driver education courses to students for which a uniform certificate of course completion is issued. The collision rate is computed by determining the number of an entity's students who complete a driver education course during a state fiscal year, dividing that number by the number of collisions that involved students who completed such a course and that occurred in the 12-month period following their licensure, and expressing the quotient as a percentage.

(b) The department shall collect data regarding the collision rate of students taught by course instructors approved under Section 521.205. The collision rate is computed by determining the number of students who completed a course approved under Section 521.205 during a state fiscal year, dividing that number by the number of collisions that involved students who completed such a course and that occurred in the 12-month period following their licensure, and expressing the quotient as a percentage.

(c) Not later than October 1 of each year, the department shall issue a publication listing the collision rate for students taught by each driver education entity and the collision rate for students taught by a course instructor approved under Section 521.205, noting the severity of collisions involving students of each entity and each type of course.

SECTION 9. Section 521.271, Transportation Code, is amended by amending Subsection (a) and adding Subsection (a-1) to read as follows:

(a) Each original driver's license and provisional license expires as follows:

(1) except as provided by Section 521.2711, a driver's license expires on the first birthday of the license holder occurring after the sixth anniversary of the date of the application;

(2) a provisional license expires on ~~[the earlier of:~~
~~[(A)] the 18th birthday of the license holder;~~
~~[(B) the first birthday of the license holder occurring after the date of the application];~~

~~occurring after the date of the application~~]; and

(4) an occupational license expires on the first anniversary of the court order granting the license.

(a-1) The department and the Texas Education Agency shall enter into a memorandum of understanding under which the department may access the agency's electronic enrollment records to verify a student's enrollment in a public school. The memorandum of understanding must specify that the department may only access information necessary to verify the identity and enrollment status of a license renewal applicant and only if a parent or guardian of the applicant has provided written permission for the department to access that information. Nothing in this subsection may be construed to allow the release of information in violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (20 U.S.C. Section 1232g).

SECTION 10. Section 521.421(c), Transportation Code, is amended to read as follows:

(c) The fee for issuance ~~or renewal~~ of a provisional license or instruction permit is $15 [~~$5~~].

SECTION 11. Section 543.204, Transportation Code, is amended by adding Subsection (a-1) to read as follows:
