H.C.R. No. 14

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, In November 1963, many Texans were anticipating a
2 two-day visit to their state by President John F. Kennedy; and

3 WHEREAS, The president's itinerary included stops in Dallas,
4 San Antonio, Houston, Fort Worth, and the capital of the Lone Star
5 State, where he was to appear at the Municipal Auditorium on 6 November 22; the speech he planned to deliver in Austin that evening
7 included memories of his 1960 campaign tour of Texas with then vice 8 presidential candidate Lyndon B. Johnson and concluded with a call 9 for unity and renewed confidence in American ideals; and

10 WHEREAS, The assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas on 11 November 22, 1963, forever changed the United States of America and 12 its people; in the aftermath of that tragedy, the planned visit to 13 Austin became a somber footnote in the annals of Texas and the 14 United States; and

15 WHEREAS, The placement of a Texas Historical Marker near the 16 auditorium would serve to remind future generations of President 17 Kennedy's leadership and his special interest in the citizens of 18 the Lone Star State; now, therefore, be it

19 RESOLVED, That the 82nd Legislature of the State of Texas,
20 1st Called Session, hereby direct the Texas Historical Commission 21 to work with the City of Austin to develop a unique design for an 22 official Texas Historical Marker in honor of President Kennedy, to 23 be paid for entirely with funds raised privately for this purpose, 24 for placement on or near the site of the Austin Municipal

1 Auditorium; and, be it further

2       RESOLVED, That such marker include these words from President
3 Kennedy's intended remarks:

4       For our Country is moving and it must not stop. It
5       cannot stop. Let us stand together with renewed 6       confidence in our cause--united in our heritage of the 7       past and hopes for the future--and determined that 8       this land we love shall lead all mankind into new 9       frontiers of peace and abundance.

10 and, be it further

11       RESOLVED, That the Texas secretary of state forward an 12 official copy of this resolution to the chair of the Texas
13 Historical Commission.
