H.C.R. No. 22

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, Access to the courts is crucial for individuals
2 seeking justice, such as victims of domestic violence, veterans
3 wrongly denied their benefits, and families improperly evicted from 4 their homes, and the integrity of the civil justice system demands 5 that this access be available to every Texan, regardless of 6 individual financial circumstances; and

7 WHEREAS, Today, some 5.7 million residents of the Lone Star
8 State, including many who are elderly and disabled, qualify for 9 legal aid, yet funding serves less than a fourth of those in need; 10 and

11 WHEREAS, Members of the Texas Supreme Court have strongly 12 advocated for adequate funding to ensure that all citizens have 13 equal access to the civil justice system, and their efforts have 14 increased awareness of the importance of legal aid and the 15 necessity for coordination and support of pro bono work by members 16 of the State Bar of Texas; and

17 WHEREAS, These endeavors are greatly benefitting innumerable 18 Texans and advancing the cause of justice throughout the Lone Star
19 State; now, therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, That the 82nd Legislature of the State of Texas, 21 1st Called Session, hereby commend the members of the Texas Supreme 22 Court for their actions in support of legal aid services and honor 23 them for their work in promoting access to justice for the state's 24 most vulnerable citizens; and, be it further
