

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The city of McAllen lost a beloved civic leader with 2 the untimely death of Oscar Raul Cardenas on May 13, 2011, at the 3 age of 50; and

4 WHEREAS, Born in McAllen on July 3, 1960, Mr. Cardenas was the 5 son of Dardanella and Ruben Cardenas; he was diagnosed with 6 muscular dystrophy as a youngster and used a wheelchair from 7 childhood, but he never let the condition define him; throughout 8 his life, his courage, determination, and boundless enthusiasm left 9 an indelible impression on all who encountered him; and

10 WHEREAS, Mr. Cardenas completed his bachelor's degree in 11 accounting at Texas A&M University and returned to McAllen, where 12 he worked for the Long, Chilton firm before embarking on an 13 entrepreneurial path; he eventually employed more than 100 people 14 at his two companies, Medical Accounts Receivable Services and the 15 Copy It Printing Center, and he was a caring mentor to the members 16 of his staff, as well as to numerous members of his community; for 17 everyone he met, he had a bright smile and encouraging word, and his 18 character, intellect, and sense of humor endeared him to a host of 19 friends; and

20 WHEREAS, This admired businessman served in myriad 21 leadership roles, including as president of the McAllen Easter 22 Seals, Jaycees, and Better Business Bureau, as well as of the 23 Muscular Dystrophy Association of the Rio Grande Valley and of the 24 Valley Association of Independent Living; in addition, he served as

1 chair of the Food Bank of the Rio Grande Valley and director of the 2 Museum of South Texas History, and he was a member of the finance
3 committee for the McAllen Airport Advisory Board; he was also the 4 treasurer of Our Lady of Sorrows Church; in 2008, he was named 5 Easter Seals Humanitarian of the Year, and he was named 2004 Man of 6 the Year by the McAllen Chamber of Commerce; moreover, he received
7 the MDA State of Texas Individual Achievement Award and the Texas
8 State Independent Living Council Outstanding Individual 9 Achievement Award, among many other accolades; and

10 WHEREAS, Oscar Cardenas brought joy to innumerable people and 11 surmounted enormous challenges in order to make a lasting, positive 12 difference in the world around him; although he will be deeply
13 missed, his compassion, generosity, and devotion to his loved ones
14 and his community will forever remain a source of inspiration; now, 15 therefore, be it

16 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 82nd Texas
