

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 109

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize Judge Brad Bradley, who has contributed significantly to his community through his leadership and initiative; and

WHEREAS, Brad Bradley spent his early years in the Boston area and often accompanied his mother as she supported or protested politically charged issues of the time; he studied political science at Northeastern University and traveled in Europe and North Africa; and

WHEREAS, He studied at the New England School of Law while pursuing various enterprises, including starting a monthly publication, the New Lawyer; he moved to the Dallas area, completed his law degree at Southern Methodist University, settled with his family in Southlake, and began his law practice; and

WHEREAS, Brad Bradley soon recognized the need for the growing community of Southlake to plan for the future, but he did not sit back and wait for someone else to do it; with a talent for finding creative solutions, he could quickly conceive an idea and work with others to follow through with implementing a particular project; he is the originator of many organizations and programs that continue today, including the Southlake Chamber of Commerce, Summer Santa, and the Pro Players Foundation; and

WHEREAS, Judge Bradley has also been instrumental in raising funds and establishing nonprofit groups to provide grants and scholarships to supplement funding for education; he
