

Amend SB 539 (house committee printing) in SECTION 1 of the bill, at the end of amended Section 53.156, Property Code (page 1, line 13), by inserting the following:

With respect to a lien or claim arising out of a residential construction contract, the court is not required to order the property owner to pay costs and attorney's fees under this section.