C.S.H.B. 1201

Committee Report (Substituted)

AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

C.S.H.B. 1201 removes all remaining references in state law to the Trans-Texas Corridor. With the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) having already announced the cessation of all efforts to construct the Trans-Texas Corridor and given the significant public opposition to the plan, it is important to reconcile state law with state policy. While TxDOT does not currently have the authority to enter into the financing agreement necessary to advance any Trans-Texas Corridor projects, current law does provide all other needed authority. C.S.H.B. 1201 would remove that authority. Two provisions struck in deleting the Trans-Texas Corridor are replaced: TxDOT's authority to implement higher speed limits on new roads specifically engineered with those higher speeds in mind if a safety study supports the higher speed limit and TxDOT's authority to authorize higher weight limits on exclusive lanes if engineering and safety studies support that higher weight limit.

C.S.H.B. 1201 amends current law relating to repeal of authority for the establishment and operation of the Trans-Texas Corridor.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

Rulemaking authority previously granted to the Texas Transportation Commission (TTC) is rescinded in SECTION 14 of this bill.
