AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

When a Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education (TCLEOSE) licensee's employment is terminated with a law enforcement agency, the head of the agency is required to submit an employee termination report, or F-5, to TCLEOSE. The F-5 submitted to TCLEOSE notes the date of the employment termination and the category of discharge from service with that agency. Currently, the agency head is required to submit the F-5 to TCLEOSE and to the licensee within seven business days following the date the licensee separates from the agency or once the licensee exhausts all local administrative appeals available if the termination was based on alleged misconduct.

Current law allows the licensee to contest the category of discharge noted on the F-5 by submitting a written request to correct the report to the law enforcement agency and to TCLEOSE no later than the 30th day after the date the licensee received a copy of the F-5. TCLEOSE is required to allow the agency head to submit rebuttal evidence to TCLEOSE. Because TCLEOSE, by law, is not a party to the dispute, TCLEOSE does not order the agency to correct F-5s, because TCLEOSE would then become a party to the appeal at the State Office of Administrative Hearings (SOAH).

Presently, the F-5 is confidential and not subject to disclosure under Chapter 552 (Public Information), Government Code, unless the licensee is separated from the agency due to sustained incidents of excessive force or violations of the law other than traffic offenses. However, a confidential F-5 may be released upon receipt of a subpoena issued in a judicial proceeding. Any other information submitted to TCLEOSE or used during the SOAH hearing, as well as the SOAH decision and order, are subject to open records requests under Chapter 552, Government Code. This creates a loophole in the confidentiality provision as the additional information used during the hearing and the SOAH order specifically reference the content, including the category of discharge, depicted in the confidential F-5.

S.B. 545 amends current law relating to employment records for law enforcement officers, including procedures to correct employment termination reports, and provides an administrative penalty.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION 1. Amends Sections 1701.452(a) and (d), Occupations Code, as follows:

- (a) Requires that the report be submitted to the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education (TCLEOSE) by the head of a law enforcement agency or the head's designee not later than the seventh business day after the date the license holder resigns, retires, is terminated, or separates from the agency and exhausts all administrative appeals available to the license holder, if applicable, rather than resigns, retires, or separates from the agency, or exhausts all administrative appeals available to the license holder if the license holder was terminated based on an allegation of misconduct.

(d) Requires that the report be provided to the license holder not later than the seventh business day after the date the license holder resigns, retires, is terminated, or separates from the agency, and exhausts all administrative appeals available to the license holder, if applicable. Makes conforming changes.

Requires TCLEOSE, on receipt of the petition, to refer the petition to the State Office of Administrative Hearings (SOAH). (d) Provides that a proceeding to contest information in an employment termination report is a contested case under Chapter 2001 (Administrative Procedure), Government Code. Deletes existing text providing that a proceeding under Subsection (b) (authorizing TCLEOSE to order the head of a law enforcement agency to correct a person's report in a timely manner based on certain information) to contest TCLEOSE's order or under Subsection (c) (entitling the person to a hearing conducted by SOAH if TCLEOSE refuses to order the head of a law enforcement agency to correct the person's report) to correct an employment termination report is a contested case under Chapter 2001, Government Code.

(e) Requires an administrative law judge, in a proceeding to contest information in an employment termination report for a report based on alleged misconduct, rather than in a proceeding under Subsection (b) to contest TCLEOSE's order or under Subsection (c) to correct an employment termination report for an order or report based on alleged misconduct, to determine if the alleged misconduct occurred by a preponderance of the evidence regardless of whether the person who is the subject of the report was terminated or the person resigned, retired, or separated in lieu of termination.

(e-1) Authorizes TCLEOSE to assess an administrative penalty against an agency head who fails to make a correction to an employment termination report following an order by SOAH after all appeals available to the agency head have been exhausted.

(b) Prohibits a TCLEOSE member or other person, except as provided by this subchapter, from releasing information, rather than the contents of a report or statement, submitted under this subchapter.

SECTION 5. Amends Section 1701.455, Occupations Code, to provide that information, rather than a report or statement, submitted to TCLEOSE under this subchapter is subject to subpoena only in a judicial proceeding.
