AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Easement and right-of-way agents are currently licensed by the Texas Real Estate Commission (TREC) and negotiate with property owners on behalf of pipeline companies, among other entities, for the purpose of acquiring easements, rights-of-way, and other land acquisitions.

These individuals may access a person's property, including entry into a home or other structure. As such, a background check should be instituted as part of the licensure requirement.

S.B. 1812 amends current law relating to criminal history record information of certain applicants for a certificate of registration issued by the Texas Real Estate Commission.
