A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT relating to certain temporary orders in a suit affecting the parent-child relationship during a parent's military deployment.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
SECTION 1. Sections 153.702(a) and (c), Family Code, are amended to read as follows:
(a) If a conservator is ordered to military deployment, military mobilization, or temporary military duty that involves moving a substantial distance from the conservator's residence so as to materially affect the conservator's ability to exercise the conservator's rights and duties in relation to a child, either conservator may file for an order under this subchapter without the necessity of showing a material and substantial change of circumstances other than the military deployment, military mobilization, or temporary military duty.
(c) A temporary order rendered by the court under this subchapter may grant rights to and impose duties on a designated person regarding the child, except that if the designated person is a nonparent, the court may not require the designated person to pay child support.

SECTION 2. Section 153.703(b), Family Code, is amended to read as follows:
(b) A nonparent appointed as a designated person [named] in a temporary order rendered under this section has the rights and duties of a nonparent appointed as sole managing conservator under Section 153.371.

SECTION 3. Section 153.706, Family Code, is repealed.
SECTION 4. The changes in law made by this Act apply to a motion for a temporary order under Subchapter L, Chapter 153, Family Code, that is pending in a trial court on the effective date of this Act or filed on or after that date.

SECTION 5. This Act takes effect September 1, 2011.
