H.B. No. 1639

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to the recovery of attorney's fees in foreclosure actions by property owners' associations.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 209.008, Property Code, is amended by amending Subsection (a) and adding Subsection (h) to read as follows:

(a) Except as provided by this section, a [A] property owners' association may collect reimbursement of reasonable attorney's fees and other reasonable costs incurred by the association relating to collecting amounts, including damages, due the association for enforcing restrictions or the bylaws or rules of the association only if the owner is provided a written notice that attorney's fees and costs will be charged to the owner if the delinquency or violation continues after a date certain.

(h) Notwithstanding Subsection (f), an owner is not liable for attorney's fees incurred by the property owners' association in judicially or nonjudicially foreclosing the association's assessment lien on the owner's property.

SECTION 2. (a) Except as provided by this section, the change in law made by this Act applies only to a judicial foreclosure in which an action is commenced or a nonjudicial foreclosure in which a notice of default under Section 51.002, Property Code, is given on or after the effective date of this Act.

1 A foreclosure in which an action is commenced or a notice of default 2 is given before the effective date of this Act is governed by the 3 law in effect immediately before the effective date of this Act, and 4 that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

5 (b) The change in law made by this Act does not apply to 6 liability for attorney's fees incurred before the effective date of 7 this Act. Liability for attorney's fees incurred before the 8 effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect 9 immediately before the effective date of this Act, and that law is 10 continued in effect for that purpose.

11 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2011.
