8 representative of the state.

9 Sec. 2. DISCLOSURE BY DEFENDANT. (a) As soon as 10 practicable after receiving the initial disclosure under Section 1 11 from the attorney representing the state, the defendant shall 12 disclose to the attorney representing the state and permit 13 inspection, photocopying, and photographing of the following 14 materials and information:

15 (1) any written or recorded statement by a witness, 16 other than the defendant, that is related to the offense charged, if 17 the defendant intends to call the witness at the trial;

18 (2) any record of a criminal conviction admissible for 19 impeachment under Rule 609, Texas Rules of Evidence, of a witness, 20 other than the defendant, the defendant intends to call at the 21 trial, if that information is known to the defendant;

22 (3) any physical or documentary evidence that the 23 defendant intends to use at the trial and, on a showing of 24 materiality by the attorney representing the state, the opportunity 25 to test that evidence;

26 (4) the names and addresses of the witnesses called to 27 present evidence under Rules 702, 703, and 705, Texas Rules of 3 (5) any report produced by or for an expert witness the 4 defendant intends to call at the trial.

5 (b) On a request by the state, a defendant planning to offer 6 evidence of one or more defenses listed in Chapter 8 or 9, Penal 7 Code, or evidence of an alibi defense, shall file a good faith 8 notice of intent to raise the defense with the court and the 9 attorney representing the state not later than the 30th day before 10 the date the trial begins or as soon as practicable after the date 11 the defendant receives a disclosure under Section 1 to which the 12 defense is responsive, whichever is later. If the defendant 13 intends to raise an alibi defense, the notice must include the place 14 at which the defendant claims to have been at the time of the 15 alleged offense and the names of the witnesses the defendant 16 intends to use to establish the alibi. Any notice provided under 17 this subsection is for purposes of discovery only and is not 18 admissible at trial unless the court finds that the contents of the 19 notice were not made in good faith.

20 (c) After the filing of the indictment or information, the 21 court may require the defendant to submit nontestimonial evidence 22 to the state. This subsection does not limit any law enforcement 23 agency or prosecutor's office from seeking or obtaining 24 nontestimonial evidence to the extent permitted by law.

25 Sec. 3. EXCEPTIONS TO DISCLOSURE. (a) Neither the 26 attorney representing the state nor the defendant is required to 27 disclose materials or information that is:

1 (1) recorded proceedings of a grand jury, except as 2 provided by Rule 615, Texas Rules of Evidence;

3 (2) a work product other than an offense report by law
4 enforcement personnel, including a report, memorandum, or other 5 internal document of the attorney representing the state, the 6 attorney representing the defendant, or an investigator or other 7 agent of the attorney representing the state or the attorney 8 representing the defendant that is made in connection with the 9 investigation, prosecution, or defense of the case; or 10 (3) privileged under a rule of evidence, an express

11 statutory provision, the Texas Constitution, or the United States 12 Constitution.

13 (b) This article does not authorize disclosure of the name, 14 address, or telephone number of a victim in violation of Chapter 57.

15 (c) A victim impact statement is subject to disclosure 16 before the testimony of the victim is taken only if the court 17 determines that the statement contains exculpatory material.

18 Sec. 4. CONTINUING DUTY TO DISCLOSE. If, before a trial 19 begins, but subsequent to compliance with this article or a 20 relevant court order, a party discovers additional material or 21 information subject to disclosure, the party shall immediately 22 notify the other party's counsel of the existence of the additional 23 material or information.

24 Sec. 5. EXCISION. (a) Except as provided by Subsection
25 (b), if a portion of material or information is subject to discovery 26 under this article and a portion is not subject to discovery, only 27 the portion that is subject to discovery must be disclosed. The 1 disclosing party shall inform the other party's counsel that the 2 portion of material or information that is not subject to discovery

3 has been excised and withheld. On request, the court shall conduct 4 a hearing to determine whether the reasons for excision are 5 justifiable. Material or information excised pursuant to judicial 6 order shall be sealed and preserved in the records of the court and 7 shall be made available to an appellate court in the event of an 8 appeal.

9 (b) Excision of a witness statement produced in accordance 10 with Rule 615, Texas Rules of Evidence, is governed by that rule.

11 (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, 12 the attorney representing the state, without a protective court 13 order or a hearing before the court, may excise from an offense 14 report or other report any information related to the victim of an 15 offense that is listed under:

16 (1) Section 3g, Article 42.12; or

17 (2) Article 62.001(5).

18 Sec. 6. PROTECTIVE ORDERS. On a showing of good cause, the 19 court may at any time enter an appropriate protective order that a 20 specified disclosure be denied, restricted, or deferred. "Good 21 cause," for purposes of this section, includes threats, harm, 22 intimidation, or possible danger to the safety of a victim or 23 witness, possible loss, destruction, or fabrication of evidence, or 24 possible compromise of other investigations by law enforcement or a 25 defense offered by a defendant.

26 Sec. 7. IN CAMERA PROCEEDINGS. On request, the court may 27 permit to be made in camera an excision hearing under Section 5(a),

1 a showing of good cause for denial or regulation of a disclosure
2 under Section 6, or any portion of a proceeding. A verbatim record
3 shall be made of a proceeding in camera. If the court excises a 4 portion of the material or information or enters an order granting 5 relief following a showing of good cause, the entire record shall be 6 sealed and preserved in the records of the court and shall be made 7 available to an appellate court in the event of an appeal.

8 Sec. 8. CONFERENCE. On request of the attorney 9 representing the state or the defendant, the court shall hold a 10 discovery hearing under Section 1(8), Article 28.01, not later than 11 the 10th day before the date the trial begins, to:

12 (1) ensure that the parties are fully aware of their 13 respective disclosure obligations under this article; and 14 (2) verify compliance by each party with this article.

15 Sec. 9. COMPLIANCE; SANCTIONS. (a) The disclosures 16 required under this article may be performed in any manner that is 17 mutually agreeable to the attorney representing the state and the 18 attorney representing the defendant or that is ordered by the court 19 in accordance with this article. The order issued by the court may 20 specify the time, place, and manner of making the required 21 disclosures.

22 (b) On a showing that a party has not made a good faith 23 effort to comply with this article or a relevant court order, the 24 court may make any order the court finds necessary under the 25 circumstances, including an order related to immediate disclosure, 26 contempt proceedings, delay or prohibition of the use of a defense 27 or the introduction of evidence, or continuance of the matter. The 1 court may also inform the jury of any failure or refusal to disclose 2 or any untimely disclosure under this article.

3 (c) The court may prohibit the use of a defense or the 4 introduction of evidence under Subsection (b) only if all other 5 sanctions have been exhausted or the discovery violation amounts to 6 wilful misconduct designed to obtain a tactical advantage that 7 would minimize the effectiveness of cross-examination or the 8 ability to adduce rebuttal evidence. The court may not dismiss a 9 charge under Subsection (b) unless authorized or required to do so 10 by other law.

11 (d) The failure of the attorney representing the state or 12 the defendant to comply with this article is not a ground for a 13 court to set aside the conviction or sentence of the defendant, 14 unless the court's action is authorized or required by other law.

15 Sec. 10. COSTS. (a) All reasonable and necessary costs 16 related to a disclosure required under this article, including the 17 photocopying of materials, shall be paid by the requesting party.

18 (b) The commissioners court of the county in which the 19 indictment, information, or complaint is pending may not, as a 20 result of any payment by the defendant of the costs required by this 21 article, reduce the amount of money provided by the county to the 22 office of the attorney representing the state.

23 Sec. 11. DISCLOSURE TO THIRD PARTIES. Before the date on 24 which the trial begins, the attorney representing the state, the 25 attorney representing the defendant, or an investigator, expert, or 26 other agent for the attorney representing the state or the attorney 27 representing the defendant may not disclose, without obtaining

1 approval of the trial court, information or witness statements 2 received from the opposing party to any third party, other than to 3 an investigator, expert, or other agent for the attorney 4 representing the state or the attorney representing the defendant, 5 as applicable. Information or witness statements received under 6 this article may not be made available to the public.

7 Sec. 12. PRO SE DEFENDANTS. This article, including the 8 provisions regarding the nondisclosure of a witness statement or an 9 offense report by law enforcement personnel, applies to a defendant 10 who has elected to proceed pro se only to the extent approved by the 11 court.

12 Sec. 13. CONFLICT OF LAW. To the extent of any conflict, 13 this article prevails over Chapter 552, Government Code.

14 SECTION 2. The change in law made by this Act applies to the 15 prosecution of an offense committed on or after the effective date 16 of this Act. The prosecution of an offense committed before the 17 effective date of this Act is covered by the law in effect when the 18 offense was committed, and the former law is continued in effect for 19 this purpose. For purposes of this section, an offense is committed 20 before the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense 21 occurs before the effective date.

22 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2011.
