1 provide to the consignee a shipping invoice that clearly states:

2 (1) the name and address of the consignor and 3 consignee;

4 (2) the origin and destination of the shipment; and
5 (3) any other information required by this code or 6 commission rule, including the brands, sizes of containers, and
7 quantities of beer contained in the shipment.

8 SECTION 3. Subchapter D, Chapter 109, Alcoholic Beverage 9 Code, is amended by adding Section 109.62 to read as follows:

10 Sec. 109.62. TEMPORARY RELOCATION OF DISTRIBUTOR OR WHOLESALER DURING EMERGENCY. (a) In this section, "period of 11 12 emergency" means a time during which weather, fire, earthquake, or other natural disaster, act of God, or catastrophe affects a 13 distributor's or wholesaler's premises or an area of this state in a 14 way that disrupts the distributor's or wholesaler's normal business 15 operations to the extent that the business cannot receive 16 deliveries at or make deliveries from the premises or perform 17 necessary business operations at the premises. 18

(b) During a period of emergency, a distributor or 19 wholesaler may temporarily operate all or part of the distributor's 20 or wholesaler's business from an alternate location, including 21 22 storing alcoholic beverages, maintaining required records, receiving alcoholic beverages from suppliers, dispatching orders 23 24 intended for sale to authorized purchasers, and performing any other function the distributor or wholesaler is authorized by this 25 26 code to perform at the licensed or permitted premises. The alternate location is considered the distributor's or wholesaler's 27

1 licensed or permitted premises, as applicable, for the purposes of 2 this code.
3 (c) A holder of a permit or license under Chapter 41, 42, or 4 68 may make deliveries to and pick up deliveries from the alternate 5 location in the same manner as this code and commission rules

6 provide for the distributor's or wholesaler's licensed or permitted
7 premises.

8 (d) A distributor or wholesaler who temporarily operates 9 all or part of the distributor's or wholesaler's business from an 10 alternate location as provided by Subsection (b) shall immediately 11 notify the administrator, in writing, of the alternate location. 12 The notice must include a statement affirming that the alternate 13 location satisfies the requirements of Subsection (e).

14 (e) The alternate location must be in an area where the sale
15 of the applicable alcoholic beverages has been approved by a local 16 option election or where the distributor or wholesaler had been
17 operating under Section 251.77 or 251.78. If beer, ale, or malt
18 liquor is handled at the alternate location, the alternate location
19 must be in the area assigned to the distributor or wholesaler under 20 Subchapters C and D, Chapter 102.

(f) If the delivery vehicles operated by the affected distributor or wholesaler are wholly or partially disabled, the administrator may grant the distributor or wholesaler the authority to contract with another distributor or wholesaler for the temporary sharing of delivery vehicles. Authority granted under this subsection is in addition to authority granted under other provisions of this code to share delivery vehicles and warehouses.

(g) A distributor's or wholesaler's authority to operate 1 2 from an alternate location under this section expires on the first anniversary of the date the distributor or wholesaler commences 3 4 business operations at an alternate location. The administrator may grant the distributor or wholesaler a one-year extension of the 5 6 authority to operate from an alternate location under this section, after which the distributor or wholesaler must apply for a license 7 8 or permit for the alternate location in the usual manner.

9 SECTION 4. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives 10 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 11 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 12 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 13 Act takes effect September 1, 2011.
