(1) [the market value of the property as appraised by the local appraisal district and as specified in the judgment of foreclosure is less than the total amount due under the judgment, including all taxes, penalties, and interest, plus the value of nontax liens held by a taxing unit and awarded by the judgment, court costs, and the cost of the sale;]

[42+] the property is not improved with a habitable building or with an uninhabitable building that is occupied as a residence by an owner or tenant who is legally entitled to occupy the building or buildings;

[43+] there are delinquent taxes on the property for a total of at least five years; and

(3) the municipality has executed with the other taxing units that are parties to the tax suit an interlocal agreement that enables those units to agree to participate in the program while retaining the right to withhold consent to the sale of specific properties to the land bank.

(g) The owner of the property subject to sale under this subchapter may not receive any proceeds of a sale under this subchapter. However, the owner does not have any personal liability for a deficiency of the judgment as a result of the sale under this subchapter.

(g-1) The owner may not receive any proceeds of a sale under this subchapter unless the amount of sale proceeds exceeds the total amount due under the judgment, including all taxes, penalties, and interest, plus the value of nontax liens held by a taxing unit and awarded by the judgment, court costs, and the cost of the sale, in which event the excess proceeds shall be distributed in the manner provided for excess proceeds of a sale under Chapter 34, Tax Code, pursuant to the foreclosure of a tax lien.

(h) Notwithstanding any other law, if consent is given by the taxing units that are a party to the judgment, property may be sold to the land bank for less than the market value of the property as specified in the judgment or less than the total of all taxes, penalties, and interest, plus the value of nontax liens held by a taxing unit and awarded by the judgment, court costs, and the cost of the sale. The taxing units may not consent to a sale for a reduced amount as authorized by this subsection if the market value specified in the judgment of foreclosure exceeds the total amount due under the judgment, including all taxes, penalties, and
