H.B. No. 2200

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

1
2 relating to the joint or separate prosecution of a capital felony
3 charged against two or more defendants.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

5 SECTION 1. Article 36.09, Code of Criminal Procedure, is 6 amended to read as follows:

7 Art. 36.09. SEVERANCE ON SEPARATE INDICTMENTS. (a) Two or 8 more defendants who are jointly or separately indicted or 9 complained against for the same offense or any offense growing out 10 of the same transaction may be, in the discretion of the court,
11 tried jointly or separately as to one or more defendants; provided 12 that in any event either defendant may testify for the other or on 13 behalf of the state; and provided further, that in cases in which, 14 upon timely motion to sever, and evidence introduced thereon, it is 15 made known to the court that there is a previous admissible
16 conviction against one defendant or that a joint trial would be 17 prejudicial to any defendant, the court shall order a severance as 18 to the defendant whose joint trial would prejudice the other 19 defendant or defendants.

20 (b) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), the court may not join 21 two or more defendants in the same criminal trial if any defendant
22 to be tried is indicted or complained against for a capital felony 23 for which the state seeks the death penalty, and the court shall 24 order a severance as to any two or more defendants who are jointly

1 indicted or complained against for a capital felony if the state
2 seeks the death penalty for any one of those defendants.

3 SECTION 2. The change in law made by this Act applies only
4 to a trial commenced in a criminal case on or after the effective 5 date of this Act. A trial commenced before the effective date of 6 this Act is governed by the law in effect when the trial commenced,
7 and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

8 SECTION 3. This Act takes effect September 1, 2011.
