5 read as follows:

6 (a) To facilitate settlement, the parties to a proceeding
7 may agree in writing to the terms of a protective order as provided 8 by Section 85.021. An agreement under this subsection is subject to 9 the approval of the court. A court may render an agreed protective 10 order under this subsection without making a finding of family
11 violence.

12 SECTION 2. Section 85.024(a), Family Code, is amended to 13 read as follows:

14 (a) A person found to have engaged in family violence who is 15 ordered to attend a program or counseling under Section
16 85.022(a)(1), (2), or (3) shall file with the court an affidavit
17 before the 60th day after the date the order was rendered stating 18 either that the person has begun the program or counseling or that a 19 program or counseling is not available within a reasonable distance 20 from the person's residence. A person who files an affidavit that 21 the person has begun the program or counseling shall file with the 22 court before the date the protective order expires a statement that 23 the person completed the program or counseling not later than the 24 30th day before the expiration date of the protective order or the

1 30th day before the first anniversary of the date the protective
2 order was issued, whichever date is earlier. An affidavit under 3 this subsection must be accompanied by a letter, notice, or 4 certificate from the program or counselor that verifies the 5 person's completion of the program or counseling. A person who 6 fails to comply with this subsection may be punished for contempt of 7 court under Section 21.002, Government Code, on the motion of a
8 party or on the court's own motion.

9 SECTION 3. The changes in law made by this Act apply to an 10 application for a protective order filed on or after the effective
11 date of this Act. An application for a protective order filed 12 before the effective date of this Act is covered by the law in 13 effect on the date the application was filed, and the former law is 14 continued in effect for that purpose.

15 SECTION 4. This Act takes effect September 1, 2011.
