H.C.R. No. 50

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, Each member of the legislature has sworn a solemn 2 oath to defend our national union and takes great pride in being a
3 citizen of the United States of America, where citizens have the 4 right to petition their government for redress of grievances; and

5 WHEREAS, All Texans have benefited from this state's 6 participation in the unique experiment in democracy that began on a 7 field in Lexington, Massachusetts, and eventually became known as 8 the United States of America; and

9 WHEREAS, Countless Texans have served in the U.S. armed 10 forces, alongside the brave sons and daughters of our sister 11 states, and many of them gave the last full measure of devotion by 12 offering their lives to preserve the union; and

13 WHEREAS, At the same time, millions of Texans assemble in 14 churches, synagogues, schools, arenas, athletic fields, and homes 15 every day to pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of 16 America and the one nation, indivisible, for which that flag 17 stands; and

18 WHEREAS, The Tenth Amendment to the Constitution of the 19 United States reads as follows: "The powers not delegated to the 20 United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the 21 States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people"; 22 and

23 WHEREAS, The Tenth Amendment defines the total scope of 24 federal power as being that specifically granted by the

1 Constitution of the United States and no more; and

2 WHEREAS, The scope of power defined by the Tenth Amendment
3 means that the federal government was created by the states
4 specifically to be an agent of the states; and

5 WHEREAS, Today, in 2011, the states are demonstrably treated 6 as agents of the federal government; and

7 WHEREAS, Many federal laws are directly in violation of the 8 Tenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and

9 WHEREAS, The Tenth Amendment assures that we, the people of 10 the United States of America and each sovereign state in the Union 11 of States, now have, and have always had, rights that the federal 12 government may not usurp; and

13 WHEREAS, Section 4, Article IV, of the constitution says,
14 "The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a 15 Republican Form of Government," and the Ninth Amendment states that 16 "The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not 17 be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people";

19 WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court has ruled in New 20 York v. United States, 505 U.S. 144 (1992), that the Congress of the 21 United States may not simply commandeer the legislative and 22 regulatory processes of the states; and

23 WHEREAS, A number of proposals from previous 24 administrations, from the present administration, and from 25 Congress may further violate the Constitution of the United States;
26 now, therefore, be it

27 RESOLVED, That the 82nd Legislature of the State of Texas

1 reaffirm the pride of all Texans in both our one and indivisible
2 national union and in our one and indivisible state and the common
3 heritage of both; and, be it further

4 RESOLVED, That sovereignty be claimed under the Tenth
5 Amendment to the Constitution of the United States over all powers 6 not otherwise enumerated and granted to the federal government by 7 the Constitution of the United States; and, be it further

8 RESOLVED, That this serve as notice and demand to the federal 9 government, as our agent, to cease and desist from mandates that are 10 beyond the scope of these constitutionally delegated powers,
11 effective immediately; and, be it further

12 RESOLVED, That all compulsory federal legislation not 13 necessary to ensure rights guaranteed the people under the 14 Constitution of the United States that directs states to comply 15 under threat of civil or criminal penalties or sanctions or that 16 requires states to pass legislation or lose federal funding be 17 prohibited or repealed; and, be it further

18 RESOLVED, That the Texas secretary of state forward official 19 copies of this resolution to the president of the United States, to 20 the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of 21 representatives of the United States Congress, and to all the 22 members of the Texas delegation to Congress with the request that 23 this resolution be entered in the Congressional Record as a 24 memorial to the Congress of the United States of America.
