

By: Hughes

H.C.R. No. 125

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, Residents of Marshall are gathering at the State
2 Capitol on March 30, 2011, to celebrate the contributions of their 3 fair city to the Lone Star State; and

4 WHEREAS, Located near the Texas-Louisiana border in the 5 beautiful rolling hills of East Texas, the city was named in honor 6 of Chief Justice John Marshall and has served as the seat of 7 Harrison County since 1842; and

8 WHEREAS, By 1860, Marshall had become one of the largest and 9 wealthiest towns in the region, and its success was due in large 10 part to the railway system that supported the town's commercial and 11 industrial development and sizable agricultural industry; and

12 WHEREAS, Today, blessed with an abundance of red and white
13 clay, residents of Marshall have built a flourishing ceramics
14 industry, with 12 wholesale pottery manufacturers, five retail 15 outlets, and countless talented artisans; and

16 WHEREAS, The city has long been considered an educational 17 center for East Texas, as it is home to three institutions of higher 18 learning: East Texas Baptist University, Texas State Technical 19 College, and Wiley College; and

20 WHEREAS, For many years, citizens of Marshall have 21 demonstrated a deep commitment to preserving their heritage as 22 evidenced by the Ginocchio National Historic District, which 23 features one of the state's finest examples of Victorian hotel 24 architecture, the 1896 Ginocchio Hotel; the city is also the site of

1 the Texas and Pacific Depot, the Allen House, the Weisman Center,
2 and the Harrison County Historical Museum, all of which contribute 3 to a revitalized downtown area; and

4 WHEREAS, Supporting a thriving arts community as well, the 5 city is aided by the Marshall Regional Arts Council, which has 6 presented lively seasons of performances to residents and tourists 7 alike for the past two decades; the Michelson Museum of Art, the 8 Marshall Symphony, and the Marshall Visual Arts Center all
9 contribute to the cultural vibrancy of this remarkable East Texas 10 city; and

11 WHEREAS, Marshall was named an All-American City by the 12 National Municipal League in 1976, and the city's residents remain 13 justifiably proud of this prestigious honor as they continue their 14 efforts to preserve the city's rich history while preparing for a 15 bright and promising future; now, therefore, be it

16 RESOLVED, That the 82nd Legislature of the State of Texas
17 hereby recognize March 30, 2011, as Marshall Day at the State
18 Capitol and extend to all those who are visiting sincere best wishes
19 for an enjoyable and informative trip to the State Capitol